LIABILITY INSURANCE

Third party motor insurance is a compulsory insurance that every car in Europe needs in order to be allowed to drive on the road. This insurance is liable for personal injury and property damage that the owner of a car caused with its own vehicle, but this insurance does not cover the damage to the owned vehicle. Third party motor insurance is also compulsory for car rental supplier. The coverage amounts are individually regulated by law but respective discrepancies per country can be high.

Third Party Insurance

In Europe, the coverage amounts of third party motor insurances differ per country. The included third party motor insurance represents the coverage in your destination country where the car will be picked up.

Supplementary Liability Insurance

For example the liability coverage amounts for motor insurances in the United States or Latin America or other countries are much lower. Most US States require the rental car company to have third party liability that financially protects whose customers. However car rental suppliers who only require to consider compulsory insurances by state may cover only the legal reimbursement with low compensation to the injured party. It is the driver's responsibility to carry insurance to protect against potential liability for injuries to other people and damage to whose vehicles and property. Customers should confirm that their own insurance meets the minimum limit set by the selected car rental supplier. The selected offer may include a Basic Liability Insurance with legally required coverages by country. A Supplementary Liability Insurance might be offered which is subject to be paid locally at the rental desk. Please be aware, that the information provided in this offer do not, and are not intended to, constitute legal advice; instead, all information, and content available on this offer are for general informational purposes only.

In case of an accident, damage or theft, the expenses charged by the car rental supplier will be refunded, including costs which are usually not covered by the insurances offered by the car rental supplier, such as road side assistance and repairs to tyres, mirrors or glass. Please refer to the Policy Terms of the Full Protection insurance for applicable details.

Important Notice

If our recommendations are not followed, it becomes the driver's responsibility to ensure in advance that their intended payment method is accepted by the rental supplier. We strongly recommend following the above guidelines to avoid any issues at pick-up. In such cases, the booking will be treated as a no-show, and the applicable no-show fees will apply.

A young driver surcharge generally applies to drivers up to the age of 30 years. The applicable young driver surcharge and age policy may differ depending on your selected car category and country. This mandatory surcharge (as a guideline between EUR 5 - EUR 35 per day) is not included in the rental price and is paid in local currency at rental desk.

A senior driver surcharge or extra insurance applies to drivers over the age of 70 years. When applicable senior driver surcharges or extra insurances are obligatory and mostly payable at the time of pick up in the local currency. Senior driver age rules are different and depend on the dedicated terms of the respective car rental company and location. We strongly recommend you check the individual supplier's requirements as additional documents may be also required. In some locations, for instance, senior drivers must provide a medical certificate to confirm that they are medically fit to drive.

Suppliers usually request compulsory documents and they further request a valid credit card with enough funds at time of pick up. Compulsory documents are determined by the supplier and are subject to vary per destination. In such a scenario your reservation will be treated as a 'No Show' and the cancellation policy according to your relevant rental terms of your reservation will be applied.

It is possible that drivers renting a car in their home country, but residing in a different country, may be required by the car rental company to present a driver's license from the country where the car is being rented. Failure to present this license may result in the car not being delivered. For holders of a UK driving license please visit DVLA for an update on recent changes to the paper counterpart effective from 8th June 2015. When renting in the United States the legal terms for 12-17 passenger van rentals may differ as per rental destination. Please check the local requirements for driving license policy.
